

Location: City of Larkspur

Commissioner: Barry Phegan

Commissioner Phegan is working with the Larkspur City Council, Library Director, and other city leaders (including former Health and Human Services director Larry Meredith) to make the new Larkspur library a vibrant community center, where people can connect and enjoy activities. This is a long-term, city-wide project partly aimed at reducing isolation and loneliness.